

BAAL Worship

(The clipart only represents idolatry, not Baal)

Gabriel L. Mancino

Baal was one of the main idol gods of the people inhabiting the territory God promised to Abraham and the Hebrew nation. That extreme act called murder is not the only crime committable under British law. Likewise, Baal was not the only false god in the land of Canaan. We could hope that truly wise people would not commit crimes nor worship idols. King Solomon, the son of King David, was considered one of the wisest men of all time. However, people need more than brains, though brains help. The Bible tells us of "wise" Solomon's idolatry as follows:

"But King Solomon loved many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites- from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, 'You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods.' Solomon clung to these in love. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. For it was so, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not fully follow the LORD, as did his father David. Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon. And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods. So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded" (1 Kings 11: 1-10). By the way, the chief problem in the verses above was Solomon! He blatantly disobeyed God, and the whole nation suffered as a result.

"Clever" people can be criminals and be at work in different settings; whether in organised crime, street gangs, global drug cartels or human traffickers, high levels of society, government, banks, education or even in the home. One such "clever" person can feel that "the other one" is "the bad guy!" God selected Jeroboam to lead the split in Israel due to Solomon's idolatry. Then Jeroboam ended up becoming renown for his own idolatry. He tried to make sure the people wouldn't reconsider and return to Jerusalem by erecting golden calf idols at both ends of his part of the country. The people wouldn't feel it necessary, then, to go all the way to Jerusalem. Satan can make idolatry so convenient.

ANARCHY! What Does It Look Like?

Uh...and when does it begin?

Gabriel L.
Mancino

Whatever Anarchy looks like, it produces its own kind, for "Like produces like." But "Like's" offspring has variety, just as children of one family with the same parents do.

Anarchy is variously defined: 1) A state of disorder due to absence or non-recognition of authority. 2) Absence of government and absolute freedom of the individual, regarded as a political ideal. 3) Absence of any form of political authority. 4) Political disorder and confusion. 5) Absence of any cohesive principle, such as a common standard or purpose. 6) A state of society without government or law. 7) Political and social disorder due to the absence of governmental control. 8) A state of society where there is no law or supreme power; a state of lawlessness. 9) General lawlessness and disorder, especially when thought to result from an absence or failure of government. 10) Political disorder, often accompanied by violence.

The above definitions can be viewed as excessive, unnecessary, misleading or inadequate, depending on the reader. However, my focus is not in political philosophy, but something far different.

The definitions, above, centre around politics and government. Today's world reached its "present stage" greatly aided by generations of intense focus, planning and determined work. The emerging "New World Order" (NWO) has the object of dissolving national sovereignties globally; and keeping the control in the hands of a "power elite." The word "anarchy" literally comes from "without" and "ruler." The NWO wants a ruler, but just not the long-time individual rulers of nations.

I heard former US President Bush on YouTube say that he didn't mind a dictatorship, then pause and add, "So long as I'm the dictator!" I suppose

"PLEASE HELP ME TO PROTECT EVERYBODY!" Wait! Who is talking? "Christianity Under Attack" was recent headlines, but it has been "under attack" from within & from many of its so-called leaders, for generations. See our website, under "Resources," the book, Crisis In The Churches, by a godly British evangelist around 1910. "The Faith" was decaying way back then. Oh yes, Satan likes people to think he has their best interest at heart! The International bankers have created crisis of another sort for generations, too, so as to rob the people blind without them even suspecting—so said that evil British "hero" economist, J. M. Keynes. We need to get back to God... badly & now!

anarchists would be against dictatorship; at least in theory. The NWO wants a one-world government...under their control. Mr. Bush doesn't mind a dictatorship...on his terms. A pre-eminent factor in a dictatorship is the character of the dictator!

The Bible tells of the coming one-world government and that it will be under the full control of one Person: Jesus Christ. I refer to the kingdom coming after the time of terrible trouble descending upon this world—perhaps very soon. The scenario to which I refer is described, in part, in the book of Revelation. St. Peter put it this way:

"The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. 11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. 14 Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless" (2 Pet. 3: 9–14).

St. John tells of that new heaven and earth (as underlined above) in Rev. 21 as follows: "Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away... Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband... And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away. Then He who sat on the throne said, 'Behold, I make all things new'...But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life" (21: 1,2,4,5,27).

A sample of those excluded from the coming and never-ending one-world government ruled by Christ Himself, is given in verse 8: "But the cowardly [fearful], unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." "The cowardly" (above) fear man, and what man can do or say to them or about them. In worse cases, they may fear loss of life, property or such like, and so turn away from salvation in Christ, though "they know inside" that it is the right Way.

Returning to the idea of anarchy, we find Jesus illustrating people's rejection of His government in the parable which culminates thus, "But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us'" (Lk. 19:14). This is anarchy at its core, and followed to its final and logical conclusion. You may read the whole parable in Luke 19. Christ's imaginary story illustrates anarchy with faultless precision. Similar anarchy against the government of God and Christ is seen in that short Psalm 2.

Anarchy, however, is not so much centralized in the brain as in the heart. St. Paul put it this way: "For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be" (Rom. 8: 6, 7). Others translate the word "enmity" with the word "opposite" or "hostile." One writer called enmity "irreconcilable and implacable hatred." The person, so described, is in anarchy against God, and resents His law and control. But remember, as Jesus said, "the carnal mind" flows from the heart! (Mark 7: 21, 22)

St. James uses that word "enmity" as follows: "Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God" (Jam. 4:4). His reference to adultery is very real, but encompasses far more than human adultery in marriage. It refers to all of man's unfaithfulness to God. It is an antagonism to submitting to God.

Man was born with this essential evil that hates God's light and government. Yet the problem is confirmed by man's continuous personal, wilful choices away from God and in favour of sin, the flesh (self) and the world. What a heart anarchy has! God told Jeremiah the prophet, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?" (Jer. 17:9). For those words "deceitful" and "desperately wicked" others translate "twisted...crooked...incurable...exceedingly corrupt...not to be searched out by man!" No wonder that God has to be called in for accurate diagnosis and adequate remedy!

If this is what Anarchy looks like...especially the worst kind of anarchy...it is something to be thrown out, for it will eventually be thrown out—forever. Regardless of our family origins, "like has produced like" from the very beginning. This leads us all back to our original parents in Eden. They decided against submitting to the wise and loving government of God, and man has inherited that anarchy.

Our first parents were removed from Eden, and Israel was repeatedly removed from The Promised Land...all because of anarchy. Oh, how hard and rebellious is the spirit of anarchy within the human breast! Those that revolt, reject and resist God's government, open themselves and their families and their nation to wholesale plundering by the chief Anarchist: Satan. They are hardly different than London rioters, but against GOD! Yet Christ came to set us free indeed! (Jn. 8: 36).

Idolatry, like crime, can have varied appearances. Some may not even look so bad! In contrast, some gods on "Solomon's List" "required" burning living children as sacrifices! People can be so easily fooled by idolatry, crime and sin. Most people would be horrified at the thought of offering their kids in sacrificial flames to die, while drums beat loudly to drown their screams. But listen! For generations, people have, in principle, been doing that very thing. Those in the Middle East need not smugly point to "The West," as if they themselves are not guilty. The Far East is filled with the same.

Street crime, prostitution, drug and alcohol abuse, sexual perversions, the onslaught against proper marriage and the home, is all due to such idol worship. The films, music, fashion, games...the list is longer than Solomon's...but ALL are a throwing of our children to the flames, sacrificing them and ourselves on the "Baal altar" of "innocent pleasures"...and pride!

The Bible pictures drunken people as not knowing who had hit them, and yet going back for more booze. Some may feel that this article is shocking, like the drunk who was hit between the eyes. Yet, just like the drunk, they will simply go back for more Baal worship. If we refuse to stop, and get back to God, fully, and on HIS terms, then...Good-bye kids!

God said: "My people have committed two evils: They have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living waters, and cut out for themselves broken cisterns—that can hold no water"

Jer. 2:13. (see also Jn. 4).
